Bill Guentzler is God ~ or at least the Artistic Director for the Cleveland Film Society. We love you Bill!
John Ewing is the Director of the Cinematheque (in the Cleveland Institute of Art), and responsible for giving us great artistic films year round. Timothy Harry is the Assistant Director at the Cinematheque.
JE -pr John Ewing believes that essential titles like The Girl on the Train, I Am Love, Looking for Eric, Mid-August Lunch, A Town Called Panic, and Vincere will probably open commercially. They are marked with " JE -pr "

My name is Kim Ann, and as always, I will be doing all 64 rounds. If you need me, (or just want to tell me what great film you just saw), leave a message on my cell phone 330-327-6347

I look forward to your views on the films. Please email me at: kimannfilms@yahoo.com

The Ape ~ Olle Sarri, who plays the main character, was not allowed to read the script before filming. The movie was shot in chronological order, with Sarri coming to the set every day without having the slightest idea what was going to happen. Also, everyone in the film team was instructed not to talk to Sarri, isolating him from the crew, making sure that nobody gave away hints about the story.
