Terms and Conditions

- Submitted work must have been completed in 2007 or later.
- All entries must be submitted electronically or on DVD (please don't use stick-on labels on DVDs).
- If you are submitting multiple shorts that are each 15 minutes or fewer, please pay the submission fee according to their total running time. Any work 16 minutes or more should be considered separately and have its own fee paid.
- Entries must be in English or have English subtitles.
- Make checks payable to "Akron Film Festival."
- AFF cannot guarantee that the work submitted will be selected for screening, and reserves the right to reject submissions.
- Materials submitted will not be returned.
- If available, please include a promotional photograph or trailer.
- All submitters will be notified of acceptance by September 6th, 2010.
- Rights to use all images and music in the movie must be owned by the submitter. We will not check – it is the submitter's liability.
- We may use the names listed on this form plus clips and stills from your submission in advertising for the festival.
- Our rights to public exhibition of the submitted work terminate after the dates of the festival.
- By submitting you grant AFF the right to screen your film during the festival (9.23.10 through 9.26.10).
- By signing below you agree to all of the above criteria.
